

Online Form - Koomurri Ultimate Dreamtime Experience

Activity Name:	Koomurri Ultimate Dreamtime Experience
Date/Time:	Friday 5 August 2022 9:30am - 3:20pm (This is a full day incursion)
Description:	This incursion will cover the following curriculum outcomes and all students will be participating in the incursion. To support the participation of all students, the cost of the incursion has been subsidised from school funds.
Cost:	$7.50
Venue:	Drummoyne Public School
Dress Code:	Full school uniform
Educational Outcomes:	This incursion is an opportunity to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history, culture and achievements. Recognising our First Nations Peoples and imbedding Indigenous learning in class programs is a mandatory aspect of the curriculum . To further support and promote greater understanding of and respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and cultures in our school, Drummoyne Public School will celebrate NAIDOC Week and Indigenous Children's Day with cultural workshops delivered by the Aboriginal performing arts group, Koomurri. The full day of experiences will begin with a smoking ceremony, a welcome song and dance show for the whole school. Students will then engage in a wide range of curriculum-linked activities including storytelling, a didgeridoo show, face painting, Aboriginal art, Aboriginal song and dance and bush survival. The day will conclude with a whole school farewell concert. The incursion will be a highlight of our celebration of Education Week. The theme for 2022 is 'creating futures - education changes lives'.
Due Date:	Wednesday 27 July 2022
