

Stage 2 Weekly Update...

Stage 2 teachers are so happy to have our students back in the classroom. It has been a wonderful week of catching up and reconnecting, along with some great learning across our stage.

Most students are doing a wonderful job of ensuring they have everything they need for school each day, but please check with your child if any of their stationery supplies (pencils, pens, glue sticks, rulers etc) need replenishing as we are discouraging sharing of equipment at the moment.

Stage 2 Shout-Outs for excellent effort, attitude and work this week go to the following students:

Maisy C, Luke C (4G), Zander Y, Sienna S (4B), Dylan M, Tammy P, Azania B (4/5T), Beckford S, Ivy Q (3/4R), Carter M, Millie B (3A) Matilda W and Israela O (3A).

Congratulations to all our students for resettling so well into the routines of "at school learning". Students in all classes have been trying hard to adopt the learning characteristics of our BHPS Learner Superheroes, Blaze, Elektra, Aurora, Caspian, Octavia and Nova.

Students have been working hard to create sizzling starts in their persuasive writing. Check out these awesome sizzling starts from 4/5T.

It should be compulsory for all children to have swimming lessons. By Dylan A

"Oh come on," I just want to swim in the water like everyone else, I should have taken swimming lessons when I was younger, that way I would be able to swim like everyone else, (I'd also be able to save myself if I were drowning) I'd get a bit more exercise and I'd be able to compete at the swimming carnival.

creating a sizziling start.

it should be compulsory for all children to have swiming lessons.

"Splish Splash"! Yes that's me and my classmates, lerning to swim thanks for asking. We learn to swim to get fit and strong, and we save ourselves from drowning, but we mostly like swimming because we don't like to be embarrass
at the school swimming carnival. Believe me swimming is fun!

By Azania B

By Tammy P

It should be compulsory for all children
to have swimming lessons.

I wake up on a Monday morning, and I always shoot to a start. As fast as a cheetah zoom to my cupboard to get my swimmers.
As that moment passes, nothing bad could be put in my mind.
In the car I'll start admiring my good looks because swimming lessons, as we go past the beach I remember I will always be sure of the beach because swimming lessons taught me how to swim. As we go past the sports centre I put in my mind that I will never be embarrassed by swimming there.